WHITES

- 302 2005 CHATEAU GRILLET, RHONE..... $150
Almost a hundred years ago, Maurice Edmond Sailland, aka Curnonsky, the great French gastronome, named Chateau Grillet one of the five greatest white wines in the world, and many would say that's still true. This beautiful vineyard, less than ten acres, is an appellation unto itself, and was recently purchased by Francois Pinault, owner of Chateau Latour, for an obscene sum. The wine, made from the exotic, aromatic Viognier grape, tends to remind me of white peaches, apricots and honeysuckle, and has a rich, viscous texture. It smells sweet but is actually dry. The 2005 vintage was an excellent one. A decadent pleasure. Pair with lobster.
- 312 2011 PAUL PERNOT BATARD MONTRACHET, BURGUNDY ..... $270
A big, generous white Burgundy with white peach flavors balanced by a jolt of citrusy acidity. This is a rich white that calls out for lobster, calamari or chicken.
- 306 2006 RENE AND VINCENT DAUVISSAT, "LES PREUSES", GRAND CRU CHABLIS ..... $250
Dauvissat is one of the two greatest names in Chablis—Francois Raveneau is the other. This wine is a wine of great concentration and piercing intensity. Many of us believe that Les Preuses, one of seven Chablis Grand Crus, is consistently Dauvissat's best. Drink it with oysters, scallops or fluke.
- 315 2008 CHRISTIAN MOREAU, "LES CLOS" GRAND CRU CHABLIS.....$180
Very, dry, crisp with a wet stone character. More mineral than vegetable, more saline than sweet, this is the ultimate oyster wine from the greatest vineyard in Chablis—and a great vintage to boot. Young, but legal. I mean, ready. Big enough to pair with tuna or swordfish or lobster.

sweet wine

- 320 2001 CHATEAU NAIRAC, SAUTERNES, BORDREAUX .....$150
I can't think of a better way to end a meal than with Sauternes. Forget dessert. The alchemy that is achieved when the Semillon and Sauvignon grapes of Sauternes are infected with a mold called Botrytis Cinera—aka noble rot—is hard to believe. Not since Baudelaire smoked opium has corruption resulted in such beauty. This is a sweet enough finish in itself. And remember what Hemingway said—"Any man who eats dessert isn't drinking enough."

REDS

- 332 2004 DOMAINE MARQUIS D'ANGERVILLE, VOLNAY, "CLOS DES DUCS" 1ER CRU, BURGUNDY .....$275
Clos des Ducs is one of the prettiest vineyards in Burgundy, a gentle slope enclosed by an ancient stone wall above the village of Volnay. It's also one of the greatest vineyards in Burgundy, which most agree should be a Grand Cru. The wines produced here, which are more austere and mineral than the typical Volnay, usually take at least twenty years to show their best but the '04 is drinking nicely today.
- 340 2009 CLERC MILLION PAULLAC, BORDREAU .....$220
This is the sister property of the First Growth Mouton Rothschild, and in some years, notably 1990, has challenged its neighbor for supremacy. Still young, the 2009 is a blockbuster, packed with black fruit, which will pair best with a steak.
- 350 2005 FRANK BALTHAZAR, "CHAILLOTS" CORNAS, RHONE.....$160
Twenty years ago, Cornas was the Rodney Dangerfield of the Rhone, an unloved appellation on a steep granitic hillside above the Rhone River; neighboring Hermitage and Cote Rotie got all the glory. Today Cornas is the hottest neighborhood on the river, thanks in part to young makers like Balthazar. This is a big, earthy, funky full-bodied red.
- 351 2012 TURLEY ZINFANDEL, "DUARTE VINEYARD", CONTRA COSTA COUNTY.....$150
Red zinfandel—we will not even deign to speak about the insipid beverage called white zinfandel—is rock and roll in a glass, a brash, unsubtle riot of a wine, and Turley makes the loudest and most danceable Zinfandel of all. Blackberry and raspberry fight for supremacy. Chef Matty Boudreau is a barbecue master and this would be great with any of his pork dishes.
- 330 2000 LA CROIX DE GAY POMEROL, BORDREAU.....$220
A fully mature, voluptuous merlot from one of the greatest modern Bordreaux vintages. Rich enough for steak; polite enough for chicken.
- 331 2004 CLOS D'AGON, CATALUYA, SPAIN .....$100
A burly, smoky blend of cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, syrah and merlot. This powerful, hedonistic red still has tons of fruit and a very outgoing personality. Don't even think of drinking it with fish.
- 333 2006 GEORGE ROUMIER CHAMBOLLE MUSIGNY, BURGUNDY .....$220
A subtle, seductive, fully mature red from one of the greatest and most sought after producers in Burgundy. The wines of Chambolle Musigny are renowned for their finesse, their silky texture and their delicate perfume and no one makes better Chambolles than Christophe Roumier. A lover, not a fighter. Ideal with Chef Matty's chicken.
- 337 2009 LOUIS JADOT BEAUNE 1ER CRU 150TH ANNIVERSARY, BURGUNDY .....$150
A special bottling from a great vintage, made only in '99 from a selection of the best grapes from this venerable firm's premier cru vineyard in Beaune. Beefy enough to go with duck.
- 355 2005 CLOS MOGADOR, PRIORAT, SPAIN.....$220
One of Spain's greatest wines: I think of this delicious Grenache-based blend as a kind of hippogriff of a wine, with an Old World head and a New World body—a thinking man's fruit bomb with lots of structure and a deep mineral undertone.
- 368 2007 NUMANTIA, TORO, SPAIN .....$100
This powerful, dense, ripe red is just settling into its prime drinking window. Lots of black fruit flavor and just enough tannin to saw through a nice steak.
- 367 2002 DOMAINE DE MONTILLE, PEREROLLES, BURGUNDY .....$200
This is a classic Burgundy from a great vintage at its peak. Lots of earthy savory notes to complement the red fruit. This is a great wine for poultry.
